

A L'ECOUTE DES MEDIAS ANGLAIS LYCEE 1
Liste des documents classés par thématiques SECONDE

Prise de notes	Document	Présentation	CECR
Création/architecture-design	16. Colour vision	Dr Gillian Rice explores the role of colour in human and animal life.	B1+/B2
Création/innovation industrielle	7. Real Ale	A new kind of real ale to be sold in supermarkets has recently been put on the market. Presenter Peter White discusses the new product with Nigel McNally, commercial director of Charles Well's brewery, and Andrew Jefford, award winning drink writer.	B1
Création/musique	11. Aiming high: making music	Secondary-school pupils and professional musicians take part in the joint project Aiming high. Both groups experience a turning-point. What does this moment of change amount to for each?	B1+/B2
Création/TV	10. Children and TV	Is it a good idea for children to have a TV set or video in their bedroom? Liz Barclay puts the question to Isabel Reed, children's programme manager at ITC and Jim White, Guardian journalist.	B1+
Échanges/industrie - Internet et divertissement	15. Entertainment and the internet	Heather Paton asks a number of experts for their opinion on the new chances that the internet offers the 'old' media of radio and television.	B1+/B2
Échanges/industrie de la beauté	6. Body shop	A customer complained about the local Body Shop in Newcastle.	B1
Échanges/l'industrie high tech	4. Lucent	Lucent Technologies is in trouble and has decided to restructure its work force.	A2/B1
Échanges/tourisme	9. Air travel	Presenter Richard Daniel chairs a discussion with a small panel of speakers (Philip Stott, Roger Wiltshire, Susan Hatfield and Derek Moore) about the environmental effect of air travel.	B1+
Lien social/ violences urbaines	8. Driving licence	Presenter Trixie Rawlinson discusses the government proposal with Keith Cameron from the British School of Motoring and Dave Rogers from ROSPA (Royal Society for Preventing Accidents).	B1+
Lien social/divisions communautaires (sociales)	5. Lost boy	A lost boy was found wandering the streets of Bermondsey.	A2/B1
Lien social/explosion urbaine	19. New Trains	The introduction of new Connex train carriages has given nothing but problems so far.	B1+/B2
Lien social/l'explosion urbaine	2. Railtrack	Report on a train accident at Edinburgh Waverley Station.	A2/B1
Lien social/l'explosion urbaine	3. Police violence	West Yorkshire police is investigating the use of violence by one of its officers.	A2/B1
Lien social/violence	12. Crime figures	Recent crime figures in the UK show the first rise in six years.	B1+/B2
Lien social/violence	13. Bullying at school and in the workplace	Libby Purves, presenter, talks to two victims of bullying, Sebastian Powell (13, who was bullied at school and Alison Campbell, who was bullied in the workplace. She discusses the subject with Maggie Turner, Manager of Chips (Childline in Partnerships with Schools) and Val Wallace, Senior Executive of the Andrea Adams Trust (which deals with workplace-bullying).	B1+/B2